Happy New Year! Office Updates

Dear Patients, Parents & Friends

I cant believe is already 2009! We've been very busy and going through some (very good) upgrades in the offices. I wanted to share with you some of the cool things we've been working on to make your lives easier.

- Check out our new location—on the world wide web! www.SmilesAroundTheBay.com. The final version should be up very soon!
- No Call Gets Missed—We have connected the offices via internet and now forward the phone calls between the offices. Now, when you need to reach us during office hours with questions about appointments, your call will be answered, regardless of the day. Please let us know which office is your home office when you call.
- We are providers of Invisalign & Invisalign Teen. Now you can achieve a straight beautiful smile without having to wear traditional braces. Schedule a complimentary consultation and see how we can invis-align your teeth and give you a beautiful, healthy smile
- Expanded Office Hours— By popular demand, we now have early morning appointments available to accommodate busy afternoon & evening schedules
- Email & Test Message Appointment Reminders — One of our most popular additions. Please let our Front Desk Coordinators know if you are interested in signing up for this feature
- Enjoy Wi-Fi while you wait — Both offices has Wi-Fi ability so you can work, do homework, check email or Facebook on your computer or your phones while you wait.

If you have any concerns or feedback, please reach out to me directly at salinsortho@gmail.com. Lets have a happy, healthy, and prosperous 2009!
